

The Battle of Bosworth Field

Tick the correct answer.

1. When did The Battle of Bosworth Field take place?

22nd August 1585

22nd August 1485

22nd August 1445

2. The House of York was represented by which flower?

a yellow daffodil

a red tulip

a white rose

3. The House of Lancaster was represented by which flower?

a red rose

a white daisy

a yellow daffodil

4. How did Richard III die?

knocked off his horse in battle

of old age

killed by Henry Tudor

5. After the battle, who did King Henry VII marry?

Elizabeth from the House of Lancaster

Elizabeth from the House of York

Elizabeth from the House of Leicester

The Battle of Bosworth Field

Answers

1. When did The Battle of Bosworth Field take place?

- 22nd August 1585 22nd August 1485
 22nd August 1445

2. The House of York was represented by which flower?

- a yellow daffodil a red tulip a white rose

3. The House of Lancaster was represented by which flower?

- a red rose a white daisy a yellow daffodil

4. How did Richard III die?

- knocked off his horse in battle of old age
 killed by Henry Tudor

5. After the battle, who did King Henry VII marry?

- Elizabeth from the House of Lancaster
 Elizabeth from the House of York
 Elizabeth from the House of Leicester